Center for Social and Demographic Analysis
and
Lewis Mumford Center

COLLOQUIUM

“Making the Most of Our Data:
The Data Sharing for Demographic Research Project”

by

Myron P. Gutmann, Ph.D.
Professor of History and
Director, Inter-university Consortium for Political & Social Research
The University of Michigan

Friday, February 10, 2006 at 3:30 pm
CSDA Library, BA B-29
University at Albany

Myron P. Gutmann is Professor of History and Director of the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) at the University of Michigan, where he also holds the title of Research Professor in the Population Studies Center. His current research projects are a study of the relationships between population, land use, and environment, in the U.S. Great Plains in the 20th Century, and a study of the history of family relationships in the Hispanic population of the U.S.

(Reception immediately following presentation!)